

When i was thirteen

VERSE 1

You're just so beautiful and you're everything I thought,
that I needed to have.
I'd have loved to ... to be,
the one that ... that you need.
But you decided to act so misguided.

PRE-CHORUS

You know you should have known better and now you get what you deserve.

CHORUS

Jessica, Jessica, I told you it's gonna hurt and I cannot be your cure.
Jessica, Jessica, I hope you're gonna be alright,
but now you're fighting your own fight.
And it might not end tonight.

VERSE 2

You're always off to party.
You can't get enough of it and so does he.
He sucked up to you, he fucked you.
I told you someday he'd let you down.

PRE-CHORUS

And now you wake up,
with something growing inside of you.
And like I sad he's off and gone and no one's there to help you through

CHORUS

RAP

U use to b something special,
now u jus something else.
N these feelings I feel I wish I never felt.
We culda had it all,
now I jus had enuff
of ya fakeness, ya 1001 faces.
Now my heart on: icebox ask ya why not.
My inside's a robot.
Damn Jess I thought we had a life.
