

YOU'RE GETTIN' LAID, I'M GETTIN' FAMOUS

VERSE 1

Do you remember when it all began.
Seems like I can still feel your touch on my chest.
Wonder what brought us down to here and now where love fades and only the memories last.

PRE-CHORUS

Even though we both wanted this to be forever and eternity.

CHORUS

And when the rain begins to fall (OH-OH).
We realize that we'll never be in love (OH-OH).
The truth will wash us all and we'll know,
that salvation's way to far.

VERSE 2

We've lost it all, we flew to fall.
Reality fucks you, when you dare to dream.
Our final fight, it ends tonight.
There's nothing we're able to change in this scheme.

PRE-CHORUS

Even if hopes may die last,
answers were given though we haven't asked.
