

dear MEXICO, i WROTE YOU a SONG

INTRO

Today's task is called economizing,
even breathing costs energy.
So it turns out that we all should decide to steal a coffin and forever rest in peace.

VERSE 1

Don't waste your time,
cause time is money and you got too little anyway.
Don't waste your money,
cause money is time and makes you so precious everyday.

Don't waste your love,
cause you can't buy it and like the Beatles sing it's all you need.
Don't waste your food,
cause it tastes so good and there's so many mouths to feed.

CHORUS

So what are we gonna do in the end,
with all the time we didn't spend.
With all the air we didn't breathe,
who is your god when you don't believe?
I can't deal with it all (so come on).
Confuse me.

VERSE 2

Don't waste your life,
cause you only got one and it can be so beautiful.
And don't lose your mind,
over this stay decent and unboastful.

CHORUS

BRIDGE

And when it's all been said and done,
will you be the one to carry on?

PRE-CHORUS

Keep your mask on hide your face.
Pretend that you're the best version of something that you will never be, you never will become.

CHORUS